

THE CEILING, CHINA COLLAGE SÉRIES

by Roberto Chabet, 1985

YOU MAY BE WONDERING WHY THESE ITEMS ARE FEATURED HERE:

This work is called a collage, arranged from pieces of paper that Philippine artist Roberto Chabet had cut or tore from his vast collection of books, magazines, photographs, envelopes, and other items. In this work, he has placed all sorts of images next to each other.

THE WORD "PAINTINGS"

DAINTINGS

A MAP WITH THICK ORANGE LINES

Whip out your magnifying glass and see if you can spot the details in this busy collage!

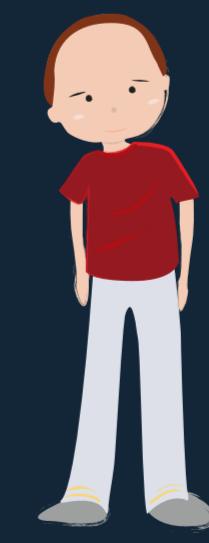

A SHOPPING LIST FOR CORNFLAKES AND HONEY

THE BOTTOM HALF OF A TREE

A BALD MAN IN A RED TOP

A WHITE ENVELOPE WITH A RED, BLUE AND WHITE BORDER

